LIBRARY INVENTORY PROCESS: The Library has sent all inventory letters out but all materials haven't been returned. We would like those of you who haven't returned all your materials to return the items. As soon as the materials are inventoried you may recheck the item out. In a few weeks we will be calling all patrons to remind them about their checked out materials. This process is very important to the library. Please return all materials as soon as possible. The library would like to finish this process. Thank you!
